

Restoring and playing outside in a respectful and sustainable way a place for everyone

this is donna's test sustainable

Heather Keffer: Enjoy the outdoors and arts and crafts in the Beaver Valley know sustainability appreciate balance nature & economy for residents & visitors education. Fragile Ecosystem Indigenous connection protecting natural areas from sustainable development. Educate and protect this natural beauty for all socio-economic groups

Educate & outreach

responsible tourism Enjoying nature sustainably

Protect Nature

sustainability

proactive

Nadia DuBayr: Bold Economic Vision = Vibrant community Green Innovation & Knowledge Base History
Nature at is best collaborative enjoy and respect the natural environment

Matt Pfaff: Welcome and education centre for visitors support local businesses and entrepreneurs distributed visitation

Fossil fuel free! Heather Davidson: Irreplaceable

Cinzia Arcuri: Enjoy nature & preserve it positive environmental and social impact what does sustainable development mean to you use in a way that allows net positive natural regeneration to occur Nature first, low impact, non motorized, solar energy, green building, green design, recognizing climate impact issues habitat.

new development should be carbon neutral scope 3 emissions (i.e. associated with Contemporary sustainable economic travel need to be considered development in existing semi urban centres no big box stores - wherever,

wherever possible, local viable economy, natural environment, & walkable neighborhoods Preserving natural habitat, or in the case of Talis man, res actively focused on economic and social balance and education

Managed area to conserve and protect optimize the area for economy

inextricably

consider environmental balancing environmental, social and economic needs

what does sustainable development mean to you use in a way that allows net positive natural regeneration to occur Nature first, low impact, non motorized, solar energy, green building, green design, recognizing and fauna, natural habitat.

balance and

education

not taking/using more than we need and ensuring that what we take or use can be regenerated. optimize the area for econom

Managed area to conserve and protect

new development should be carbon neutral

keeping the moola in the community scope 3 emissions (i.e associated with Contemporary sustainable economic travel need to be consider deveopmnte in eisiting semi urba centres

no big box stores - wherever,

wherever possible, local

viable economy, natural environment. & Walkable communities

Preserving natural habitat, or in the case of Talis man, res toring lost habitat.

balancing environmental, social and economic needs