

THE CORPORATION OF THE MUNICIPALITY OF GREY HIGHLANDS

BY-LAW NUMBER 2018-021

A by-law to establish municipal-wide development charges for the Corporation of the Municipality of Grey Highlands

WHEREAS subsection 2(1) of the Development Charges Act, 1997 c. 27 (hereinafter called "the Act") provides that the council of a municipality may pass By-laws for the imposition of development charges against land for increased capital costs required because of the need for services arising from development in the area to which the by-law applies;

AND WHEREAS the Council of The Corporation of the Municipality of Grey Highlands ("Municipality of Grey Highlands") has given Notice in accordance with Section 12 of the Development Charges Act, 1997, of its intention to pass a by-law under Section 2 of the said Act;

AND WHEREAS the Council of the Municipality of Grey Highlands has heard all persons who applied to be heard no matter whether in objection to, or in support of, the development charge proposal at a public meeting held on January 10, 2018;

AND WHEREAS the Council of the Municipality of Grey Highlands on February 07, 2018 approved the applicable Development Charges Background Study, dated February 11, 2018, in which certain recommendations were made relating to the establishment of a development charge policy for the Municipality of Grey Highlands pursuant to the Development Charges Act, 1997;

NOW THEREFORE THE COUNCIL OF THE MUNICIPALITY OF GREY HIGHLANDS ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

DEFINITIONS

- (26) "Single detached dwelling" means a completely detached building containing only one dwelling unit.
- (27) "Townhouse dwelling" means a minimum of three (3) dwelling units which are attached above and below grade by either the entire length of the garage or by the entire length of the main common wall and all of which front on a public or private street.

CALCULATION OF DEVELOPMENT CHARGES

- 2. (1) Subject to the provisions of this By-law, development charges against land shall be imposed, calculated and collected in accordance with the rates for the services set out in Schedules "A1 to A5" as applicable.
- (2) The wastewater and water component or the applicable portion of the wastewater and water component of the Development Charges imposed herein shall not be charged where wastewater and/or water services are not available. The resulting Development Charges are also set out in Schedules "A1 to A5" as applicable
- (3) The development charge with respect to the uses of any land, building or structure shall be calculated as follows:
 - a) in the case of residential development or redevelopment or the residential portion of a mixed use development or redevelopment, as the sum of the product of the number of dwelling units of each type multiplied by the corresponding total amount for such dwelling unit type, as set out in Schedules "A1 to A5" as applicable;
 - b) in the case of non-residential development or redevelopment, or the non-residential portion of a mixed use development or redevelopment, as the sum of the product of the gross floor area multiplied by the corresponding total amount for such gross floor area as set out in Schedules "A1 to A5" as applicable.

- (4) Council hereby determines that the development or redevelopment of land, buildings or structures for residential and non-residential uses will require the provision, enlargement or expansion of the services referenced in Schedules "A1 to A5"

APPLICABLE LANDS

3. (1) Subject to Sections 5 and 6, this by-law applies to all lands in the municipality, whether or not the land or use is exempt from taxation under Section 3 of the Assessment Act, R.S.O. 1990, c.A.-31.
- (2) This by-law shall not apply to land that is owned by and used for the purposes of:
- (a) a board of education;
 - (b) any municipality or local board thereof;
 - (c) hospitals under the Public Hospitals Act;
 - (d) places of worship exempt from taxation under the Assessment Act;
 - (e) farm buildings.

RULES WITH RESPECT TO EXEMPTIONS FOR INTENSIFICATION OF EXISTING HOUSING

4. (1) Notwithstanding Section 3 above, no development charge shall be imposed with respect to developments or portions of developments as follows:
- (a) the enlargement of an existing residential dwelling unit;
 - (b) the creation of one or two additional residential dwelling units in an existing single detached dwelling where the total gross floor area of the additional unit(s) does not exceed the gross floor area of the existing dwelling unit;
 - (c) the creation of one additional dwelling unit in any other existing residential building provided the gross floor area of the additional unit does not exceed the smallest existing dwelling unit already in the building.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection 4(1)(b), development charges shall be calculated and collected on the additional units in accordance with Schedules "A1 to A5" as applicable where the total residential gross floor area of the additional one or two dwelling units is greater than the total gross floor area of the existing single detached dwelling unit.
- (3) Notwithstanding subsection 4(1)(c), development charges shall be calculated and collected on the additional units in accordance with Schedules "A1 to A5" as applicable where the additional dwelling unit has a residential gross floor area greater than,
- (a) in the case of semi-detached house or multiple dwelling, the gross floor area of the existing dwelling unit, and
 - (b) in the case of any other residential building, the residential gross floor area of the smallest existing dwelling unit.
 - (c) in the case of an addition to a dwelling constructed after this by-law comes into force that has the effect of increasing the number of units, the additional Development Charge due on the additional dwelling units shall be paid based on Schedules "A1 to A5" as applicable to this by-law.

RULES WITH RESPECT TO AN "INDUSTRIAL" EXPANSION EXEMPTION

5. (1) Notwithstanding Section 3 if a development includes the enlargement of the gross floor area of an existing industrial building, the amount of the development charge that is payable is the following:
 - (a) if the gross floor area is enlarged by 50 percent or less, the amount of the development charge in respect of the enlargement is zero; or
 - (b) if the gross floor area is enlarged by more than 50 percent, development charges are payable on the amount by which the enlargement exceeds 50 percent of the gross floor area before the enlargement.
- (2) For the purpose of this section, the terms "gross floor area" and "existing industrial building" shall have the same meaning as those terms have in O.Reg. 82/98 made under the Act.
- (3) For the purposes of this section the gross floor area shall be the gross floor area that existed as of January 1, 2008

DEVELOPMENT CHARGES IMPOSED

6. (1) Subject to subsection (2), development charges shall be calculated and collected in accordance with the provisions of this by-law and be imposed on land to be developed for residential and non-residential uses, where, the development requires,
 - (a) the passing of a zoning by-law or an amendment thereto under Section 34 of the Planning Act;
 - (b) the approval of a minor variance under Section 45 of the Planning Act;
 - (c) a conveyance of land to which a by-law passed under subsection 50(7) of the Planning Act applies;
 - (d) the approval of a plan of subdivision under Section 51 of the Planning Act;
 - (e) a consent under Section 53 of the Planning Act;
 - (f) the approval of a description under Section 50 of the Condominium Act, R.S.O. 1990, c.C.-26; or
 - (g) the issuing of a permit under the Building Code Act, in relation to a building or structure.
- (2) Subsection (1) shall not apply in respect to:
 - (a) local services installed or paid for by the owner within a plan of subdivision or within the area to which the plan relates, as a condition of approval under Section 51 of the Planning Act;
 - (b) local services installed or paid for by the owner as a condition of approval under Section 53 of the Planning Act.

LOCAL SERVICE INSTALLATION

7. Nothing in this by-law prevents Council from requiring, as a condition of an agreement under Section 51 or 53 of the Planning Act that the owner, at his or her own expense, shall install or pay for such local services, within the Plan of Subdivision or within the area to which the plan relates, as Council may require.

MULTIPLE CHARGES

8. (1) Where two or more of the actions described in subsection 6(1) are required before land to which a development charge applies can be developed, only one development charge shall be calculated and collected in accordance with the provisions of this by-law.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), if two or more of the actions described in subsection 6(1) occur at different times, and if the subsequent action has the effect of increasing the need for municipal services as set out in Schedules "A1 to A5" an additional development charge on the additional residential units and additional gross floor area on non-residential properties shall be calculated and collected in accordance with the provisions of this by-law.

SERVICES IN LIEU

9. (1) Council may authorize an owner, through an agreement under Section 38 of the Act, to substitute such part of the development charge applicable to the owner's development as may be specified in the agreement, by the provision at the sole expense of the owner, of services in lieu. Such agreement shall further specify that where the owner provides services in lieu in accordance with the agreement, Council shall give to the owner a credit against the development charge in accordance with the agreement provisions and the provisions of Section 39 of the Act, equal to the reasonable cost to the owner of providing the services in lieu. In no case shall the agreement provide for a credit that exceeds the total development charge payable by an owner to the municipality in respect of the development to which the agreement relates.
- (2) In any agreement under subsection (1), Council may also give a further credit to the owner equal to the reasonable cost of providing services in addition to, or of a greater size or capacity, than would be required under this by-law.
- (3) The credit provided for in subsection (2) shall not be charged to any development charge reserve fund.

RULES WITH RESPECT TO RE-DEVELOPMENT

10. In the case of the demolition of all or part of a residential building or structure:
 - (1) a credit shall be allowed, provided that the land was improved by occupied structures (or structures capable of occupancy) within the five years prior to the issuance of the building permit, and the building permit has been issued for the development or redevelopment within five years from the date the demolition permit has been issued; and
 - (2) if a development or redevelopment involves the demolition of and replacement of a building or structure, a credit shall be allowed equivalent to the number of dwelling units demolished multiplied by the applicable residential development charge in place at the time the development charge is payable.

- (3) in the case of an addition to a dwelling as described 4(2) and 4(3) (b) constructed after this by-law comes into force that has the effect of increasing the number of units the additional Development Charge due on the additional units shall be paid based on Schedules "A1 to A5" to this by-law.
10. In the case of the demolition of all or part of a non-residential building or structure:
- (1) a credit shall be allowed, provided that the land was improved by occupied structures (or structures capable of occupancy) within the five years prior to the issuance of the building permit, and the building permit has been issued for the development or redevelopment within five years from the date the demolition permit has been issued; and
 - (2) if a development or redevelopment involves the demolition of and replacement of a building or structure, a credit shall be allowed equivalent to the floor area demolished multiplied by the applicable non-residential development charge in place at the time the development charge is payable.
 - (3) in the case of an addition to a non-residential property as described 5(1)(b) constructed after this by-law comes into force that has the effect of increasing the floor area the additional Development Charge due on the additional floor area shall be paid based on Schedules "A1 to A5" to this by-law.
11. A credit can, in no case, exceed the amount of the development charge that would otherwise be payable, and no credit is available if the existing land use is exempt under this by-law.

RULES WITH RESPECT TO PHASING IN THE DEVELOPMENT CHARGES

12. (1) The full amount of the calculated development charges shall not be immediately imposed but shall be phased in according to the charges and periods listed in Schedules A1 to A5

TIMING OF CALCULATION AND PAYMENT

13. (1) Development charges shall be calculated and payable in full in money or by provision of services as may be agreed upon, or by credit granted under the Act, on the date that the first building permit is issued in relation to a building or structure on land to which a development charge applies.
- (2) Where development charges apply to land in relation to which a building permit is required, the building permit shall not be issued until the development charge has been paid in full.
- (3) Notwithstanding Subsections (1) and (2), Council may enter into an agreement with any person who has negotiated to pay a development charge providing for all or part of the development charge to be paid before or after the time it would otherwise be payable.

RESERVE FUNDS

14. (1) Monies received from payment of development charges under this by-law shall be maintained in separate reserve funds as follows:
- a) administrative services;
 - b) recreation services;
 - c) library services;
 - d) fire protection services;
 - e) waste diversion services;
 - f) transportation services;
 - g) water services; and
 - h) wastewater services
- (2) Monies received for the payment of development charges shall be used only in accordance with the provisions of Section 35 of the Act.
- (3) Where any development charge, or part thereof, remains unpaid after the due date, the amount unpaid shall be added to the tax roll and shall be collected as taxes.
- (4) Where any unpaid development charges are collected as taxes under subsection (3), the monies so collected shall be credited to the development charge reserve funds referred to in subsection (1).
- (5) The Treasurer of the Municipality shall, in each year furnish to Council a statement in respect of the reserve funds established hereunder for the prior year, containing the information set out in Section 12 of O.Reg. 82/98.

BY-LAW AMENDMENT OR APPEAL

15. (1) Where this by-law or any development charge prescribed thereunder is amended or repealed either by order of the Ontario Municipal Board or by resolution of the Municipal Council, the Municipal Treasurer shall calculate forthwith the amount of any overpayment to be refunded as a result of said amendment or repeal.
- (2) Refunds that are required to be paid under subsection (1) shall be paid with interest to be calculated as follows:
- (a) Interest shall be calculated from the date on which the overpayment was collected to the date on which the refund is paid;
 - (b) The Bank of Canada interest rate in effect on the date of enactment of this by-law shall be used.

BY-LAW INDEXING

16. The development charges set out in Schedules "A1 to A5" to this by-law shall be adjusted annually as of the anniversary date the by-law comes into force, without amendment to this by-law, in accordance with the most recent twelve month change in the Statistics Canada Quarterly, "Construction Price Statistics for non-residential construction".

SEVERABILITY

17. In the event any provision, or part thereof, of this by-law is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be ultra vires, such provision, or part thereof, shall be deemed to be severed, and the remaining portion of such provision and all other provisions of this by-law shall remain in full force and effect.

HEADINGS FOR REFERENCE ONLY

18. The headings inserted in this by-law are for convenience of reference only and shall not affect the construction of interpretation of this by-law.

BY-LAW REGISTRATION

19. A certified copy of this by-law may be registered on title to any land to which this by-law applies.

BY-LAW ADMINISTRATION

20. This by-law shall be administered by the Municipal Treasurer.
